BLUE AND GOLD

PEGGY KNOUSE

FOREWORD

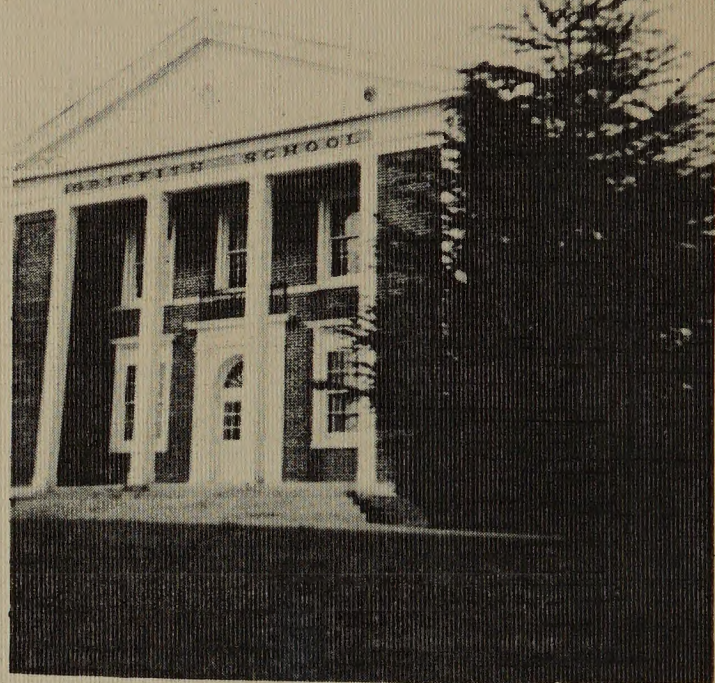

The yearbook is probably the best remembrance of High School days. As we turn the pages of this annual in years to come, we can remember the many wonderful days we spent together. We will remember the gay parties and dances on week ends and holidays; the frosty blue football weather; the basketball games; the assemblies; the clubs and even History, Math, English and Science. These can never be forgotten, nor the teachers, friends, and classmates that gave meaning to these things.

Our school days are coming to an end, but they have all been fun and we will treasure them for many years to come.

Therefore, let this yearbook be a keepsake, a keepsake of Griffith, to be loved and cherished always.

DEDICATION

To a noble woman-generous in thought, kind in deed, a restrainer
of our excesses,
a developer of our latent abilities,
a sharer of our many joys,
an absorber of our griefs
and fears — to our friend and counselor, Mrs. Hazelle
M. Northrop, we dedicate with fond affection this the second volume of our yearbook.

Perry when Mr. Shore made the Civitan of award to you he summed up ^{part of} the things I'd say here. I ~~shook~~ ^{would} repeat.
what he couldn't know was how kind you are, and understand my and loyal.
I am very proud of your friendship,
and I love you

CLASS HISTORY

It was May, 1949, the graduating class of Griffith School had entered a float in the Centennial Parade. There were 20 of us upon it dressed in the costumes of a hundred years ago, pantaloons and high button shoes. As we started down Fourth Street, I felt my braids being put into an ink well and as I started up, I felt myself falling, and the next thing I knew, I was a Freshman entering High School.

The year was 1945. Our classes were divided, the girls with Miss McCauley, the boys with Mr. Snapp.

Soon after we were settled into the daily routine of school life we elected our officers for the year. They were: President, Dorothy Tucker; Secretary, Vernelle Stanley; and Treasurer, Nancy Hayes.

The next year found us Sophomores. Our school life was well-rounded with much hard work set off by many good times. We took several trips, our best time perhaps at Roaring Gap. Our officers for the year were: President, Vernelle Stanley; Secretary, Nancy Hayes; and Treasurer, Annie Spaugh.

When in 1947 we became Juniors, we felt we were indeed in the midst of the stars. We had splendid times that year. We even had individual pictures in the annual. We had the Junior-Senior Banquet at the Patio in May, soon to be followed by a formal return party given by the Seniors in the school gymnasium. Again we took various trips and had many parties. We chose leaders of our class who were: President, Vernelle Stanley; Secretary, Tommy Everhart; and Treasurer, Bobbie Brown.

Seniors! We all returned to Griffith in the fall of 1948, knowing regretfully that it would be our last year at our Alma Mater. What a splendid year this, our last one, was. Our officers, elected at the close of the previous year were: President, Jack Moorefield; Secretary, Vernelle Stanley; and Treasurer, Bobbie Brown.

We went to the inauguration of Governor Scott in Raleigh. We won a holiday by giving the most money on the activity bus fund. We had parties, dances and many other good times to brighten our Senior year.

Our Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the big ball room of the Robert E. Lee in April.

This year marked a great event in the lives of us all. It was Forsyth County's Centennial year, and the Senior boys grew beards along with the rest of the men in the county. We entered a float in the parade on May 12th, showing the inside of a school room in 1849. We also published a pamphlet on the history of the schools of Forsyth County.

We have had wonderful times here for the past twelve years, but now the time has come when a fond farewell must be made to dear old Griffith High School. We are leaving with mingled regrets of happiness and sorrow for the memories of these past years will always be held pleasantly in our hearts.

Having been lifted upon the float, I came to, with the reality that graduation will soon descend upon us, when in white caps and gowns we receive our diplomas and make our departure. We will no longer be students of Griffith High School, but students of the universe.

NANCY HAYES.

PROPHECY

The Senior Class decided to take a trip to California, since they were the Class of '49 and therefore thought the title "forty-niners" would fit in nicely. Early in the summer, all the Seniors set out in a covered wagon. Everyone was overjoyed with the trip and enjoyed the scenes along the way.

As we were crossing the vast desert in Nevada, we happened to come across a band of Gypsies. There was one old Gypsy in the band who claimed to be very skilled in telling fortunes. Immediately all of us began asking her to tell our fortunes. She readily agreed but refused to dip into the future beyond the year of '59.

She gazed into the crystal ball and told us the following:

Tommy Allen has finally talked Ruth Gray's father into letting him have her. Ruth is rocking a bald-headed baby to sleep while Tommy is making eyes at some other blond.

Kennon has retired as a football star from Mars Hill College and settled down to comfort his loving wife, June Johnson.

Gray "Einstein" Elliott is steadily employed at Chapel Hill as a professor of all general knowledge.

Allen "Bird-Legs" Harrison is setting on a nest of parrot eggs.

Colleen Black Ruby Black, and Melba Burgess are all working at Gibson's Ice Cream Parlor under the supervision of Maxine Thomas.

"Jake" Johnson is now owner and manager of a rabbit farm. He is in fur up to his neck.

Mack Matthews has lost his job in the lunch room and is now a street cleaner.

Dewey Black is general owner and manager of Silver's Grocery Department.

Jessie is a big time operator with a still on every hill in Yadkin County.

Tommy Everhart has been recognized as the second Babe Ruth of Griffith School. He has a total of 94 home runs out of 95 times at bat.

Bobby Reeves and Nancy Hayes are still "feudin', fussin', and fightin'." No one knows whether they will get married or not.

As the crystal ball began to change colors we saw Lib Spach and Marjorie Pope in New York modeling for a fashion designer.

Jimmy Moore is a Rear Admiral in the Navy.

Bill Enscoe is still going to Griffith School trying to get his diploma.

Bettie Ann Carroll is teaching the first grade at Arcadia High.

Ruth Foltz and Ruth Miller are playing professional basketball for Hanes Hosiery.

Bill Skidmore has taken over his father's job of driving the bus for the Cardinals.

PROPHECY (Continued)

Mary and Martha Reich are still milking cows down on the farm waiting for the day when two good looking twin boys will come along to marry them.

Sue Skidmore is flirting with the interns at Baptist Hospital. I think she is struck on the idea of having a doctor for a husband.

Dallas Shields still won't give Barbara Holcomb a date. What's wrong, Dallas?

Peggy Knouse finally accepted Fred's diamond and they are now happily married.

Joan Smith and Elva Teague are now working for some rich old man as stenographers.

The crystal ball started to glow a bright red and then suddenly turned to a dark cast when she said she saw Peggy Jenkins down on the farm—pushing little baby chicks in the water.

Roger Sides is making a fortune baby sitting.

Nancy Dickerson is a hair designer at the high class Konnoak Hills Beauty Parlor.

Wilma Fishel is having a hard time trying to keep Jack Moorefield away since she is married.

Mary Alice Wilson is general manager of F. W. Woolworth's.

Nancy Doub is floor-walker at Kress' five and dime store.

Clayton Miller is beating his brains out auctioneering tobacco.

Peggy Faircloth has a contract with Howard Hughes, that well known "zillionaire" of California.

Norma Hartman has taken Lois Lane's place as a reporter for the Daily Planet.

Peggy Ragsdale is now living happily in a little four room cottage since her marriage in 1950.

Jewel Elledge has changed her cloth coat for a mink, a Salisbury Road address for Beverly Hills, but there is still the same long string of male admirers.

Harold just came down to breakfast to find the telephone ringing, both kids crying and his wife, the former Vernelle Stanley wringing her hands because she had just burnt his toast. Life gets teejus!

Patsy Connell hasn't gained a pound—busy gal, how could she between keeping up with her "Tripplettes" and appearing at Carnegie Hall, accompanying her Tripplette?

Geneva Ragsdale is prospering as the manager of Imperial Insurance Co., now covering the twelfth floor of the Nissen Building.

Charlie Rierson was found flat on his back under a 1934 Ford in a service station on the corner of Konnoak Drive and Clemmons ville Road. Bobbie was standing on the steps of the house across the road yelling for him to come to dinner.

Just as she was about to tell my fortune, the crystal ball glowed with a peculiar green color, whirled around and around, then blew up—right in her face!

After assuring ourselves that our Gypsy friend was unharmed, we thanked her and continued our journey to California.

BILL NIXON.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1949, of Griffith High School in fifty distinct parts, boasting of our great mental strength and our physical fitness that would put Einstein and Atlas to shame, do hereby dispose of our priceless possessions as designated in this, our Last Will and Testament.

To our principal, we extend sincere appreciation for his continuous interest, enthusiasm and assistance throughout our High School careers.

To the members of the faculty we leave our deepest gratitude for their unceasing efforts in trying to pound knowledge into blockheads.

And to the Junior Class, we leave our most priceless possessions, our ability to get along with the student body, and we hope they will use this as we have.

Charlie Rierson wills his "squirrel barking" and other nonsense to John McDaniel.

Ruth Foltz wills about forty pounds to Betty Brewer.

Kennon Blackwelder and June Johnson will their theme song, "Feudin', Fussin', and Fightin'," to Bill Coulter and Fay Knouse.

Jimmy Moore wills his wings, jet propelled car, and nine lives, also a collection of speed tickets to Ace Williard.

The Senior bus drivers leave all eight buses to C. P. Mahaffey.

Sam Hine wills his ability to break girls' hearts to Charles Fishel.

Tommy Allen leaves, what once was Ruth Gray's heart, to Bill Cromer.

Ruth Miller leaves her ability to play basketball to Betty Alexander.

Jewel Elledge leaves her shape to Betty Smith.

Bobbie Brown wills her intelligence to Bill Grubbs.

Jessie Swaim wills her home town of Booneville to anyone that will take it.

Gray Elliott wills his dreamy, starry eyes to Max Jones.

J. C. Johnson wills his chain of girls to Clifton Berrier.

Bill Nixon wills his "Best All Around" position to Bobby Spangler.

Dallas "Shaky" Shields wills his shake to Bill Hege.

Peggy Knouse wills her position as Glee Club accompanist to her baby sister, Fay.

Allen Harrison wills his beautiful legs to Barbara Chiddie.

Mack Matthews wills his ability to finish school to Red Ebert.

Bill Enscoe wills his laziness to Roy Brown.

Roger Sides wills his "Biggest Baby" position to Sonny Gobble.

Peggy Faircloth wills her way with the boys to Hilda Gentry.

Dewey Black wills Silvers 5 & 10 cents store to Charles Mahaffey.

Clayton Miller wills his auctioneering talent to James Pope.

Bill Skidmore wills about forty pounds of lard to the lunch room.

Colleen and Ruby Black will Gibson's Ice Cream Company to Ann Kiger.

Tommy Everhart wills all his French knowledge to Sharon Cottrell.

Wilma Fishel leaves her beautiful red hair to Etta Boles.

Patsy Connell wills her quietness to Barbara Smith.

Bettie Ann Carroll wills her eagerness to finish school to Patsy Patterson.

Marjorie Pope and Elizabeth Spach got together and wish to will Mr. Nelson back to High Point College if they'll take him back.

Norma Hartman wills her conceit to Joan Long; about time for her to get rid of it.

Nancy Dickerson wills her everlasting title "The Cutest" to Jackie Snyder.

Nancy Doub wills her working ability to Marie Johnson.

Martha Reich wills her flirting ability to Barbara Beale.

Mary Reich wills her giggles to Ann Long.

Peggy Jenkins wills her ability to get along with other people to Nancy Cockerham.

Geneva Ragsdale wills her good times in the typing class to June Eller.

Maxine Thomas wills Bill Grubbs to Katie Granger.

Peggy Ragsdale wills all her boy friends except one to Mary Ellen Manning.

Sue Skidmore would like to give Miss Lewis a few pounds of her weight.

Joan Smith wills her ability to do without boys to any poor girl that wants to try it.

Vernelle Stanley wills her Cheerleading position to Betty Hill.

Mary Alice Wilson wills her shortness to Connie Smith.

Elva Teague wills her looks to Mildred Bristow.

Melba Burgess wills her Beta Club membership to Jimmy Tesh.

Bobby Reeves and Nancy Hayes will their trips in their old "A" Model to Don Hunter.

In witness thereof, we, the Senior Class, do affix our seal this fifteenth day of June, one thousand, nine hundred and forty-nine.

TOMMY EVERHART, Testator.

GRADUATION

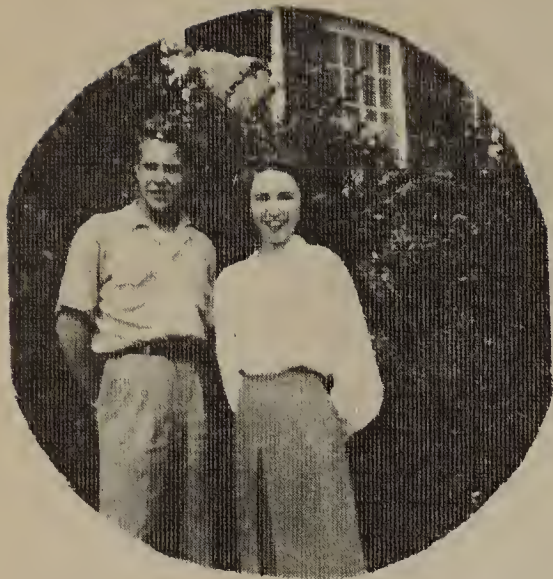

Soon June will come, and we must go;
We're leaving the halls of our youth
Burdened with all the ideas we know,
In darkness, to search for the truth.

Our songs are sung, the parting nears,
We face the world; each alone.
Will we forget in later years
The goal we have set for our own?

No: Let us remember always,
When surmounting our common bars
As we go our separate ways:
"Through Difficulty to the Stars."

 Dear Peggy -
 your receiving the Civitan Award moved me to tears. I know the thrill you had. While in College, I was awarded a Scholarship that entailed the same qualities and character, scholarship + probable success. I have enjoyed having you around my classroom!
 I hope that you maintain the same fair, intelligent judgment that you have possessed. Good luck as a future homemaker. Your friend,
 Dorothy Clinard

This is a dense collage of black and white photographs, likely from a mid-20th-century yearbook. The images are arranged in a grid-like fashion with some overlapping. The photos depict various scenes of student life: groups of friends posing, students in athletic gear, a person on a horse, a student sitting on a boat, and portraits of individuals. The collage is arranged in a grid-like fashion with overlapping images.

Dear Peggy,

you really don't know how much I've enjoyed being with you this year. I have grown to love you as one of the nicest girls at Griffith, and I've had lots of fun with you. Peggy, you, if anybody, deserve the best that could be given to anybody. Really, Peggy, words can't express your ability to do things. You have worked hard and have also helped me this year. You have made the goal so far, Honey, and I'm sure you can make good in anything you do. I'll remember you as the winner of the Civitan Award, and you well deserve it. Peggy, I really can't express ^{any} all I would like to about you. I don't have the words to say it with. I think you're sweet, nice, and very wonderful! May success be yours in anything ~~you~~ undertake and all the good luck in the world. Peggy, I hope you and Fred have a life filled with happiness, you deserve that, too. I guess this is the last day we'll be in school together, but it isn't the end of our friendship. I hope we can see more of each other from this day on. Best wishes for a successful & happy life!

Love 'ya!
"Pete"
